

CALVARY ANNUAL MEETING, JANUARY 18th

Please make plans to attend our congregational meeting on January 18th. There will be a fellowship meal after the worship service, and the meeting will start immediately following. Please email the reports due on January 4th, so they can be made available no later than January 11th. The Annual Report will be emailed. Printed copies will be made available only by request. You are encouraged to read through the reports before the meeting. The nominating committee welcomes input from anyone interested in serving or who has suggestions to offer. If you'd like more information, contact a committee member or the office. (Joel Christenson, Linda Saurer, and Dean Lundby) or the Calvary office.

LIFE SUNDAY & HEALTH RESOURCES CENTER

Sanctity of Human Life Sunday is January 18th. This year's theme is "Fearfully and Wonderfully Made." This Life Sunday 2026 theme is based on Psalm 139:13: "For you formed my inward parts; you knitted me together in my mother's womb." We recommend the following organizations if you are looking for resources or more information: Health Resources Center (in Fergus Falls), Lutherans for Life, Minnesota Citizens Concerned for Life, Heartbeat International, and Focus on the Family.

FREE LUTHERAN SEMINARY SYMPOSIUM

What role do beauty and aesthetics play in the Christian life? Join us as we examine the historical relationship between the church and various art forms, which ultimately point us to the beauty of the Gospel.

This year's featured speaker is Dr. Mark Mattes, who is Chair of Doctoral Studies at American Lutheran Theological Seminary and author of Martin Luther's Theology of Beauty: A Reappraisal.

The Free Lutheran Seminary hosts this symposium with the purpose of building up the congregation through the careful study of theological topics at an academic level. Pastors, lay leaders, congregation members, and even teens are welcome to register!

Check flbc.edu for more information.
