OPPORTUNITIES FOR GROWTH AND FELLOWSHIP

Hope for Hannah August 17, 3-8 PM @ Spies Riverfront Park

6-year-old Hannah Peterson (daughter of Tyler & Kelsey) recently received a rare diagnosis that will require a spinal fusion surgery at Children's Hospital in the Twin Cities and numerous follow-up appointments. All are invited to support Hannah and her family by coming to enjoy the vendors, food trucks, silent auction and bake sale on Thursday, 8/17. Proceeds from the event will go toward travel expenses and Hanna's care & healing.

If you would be willing to donate baked goods for the bake sale, are interested in being a vendor, or would like to donate to the silent auction, please contact Shawn Fitzgerald: leelee5410@gmail.com

100 Groups Introducing "100 Groups," the revamped and renamed small groups ministry at Calvary. Look for more information in the August newsletter and in the coming weeks as we anticipate the impact small groups can have on our church community.

Calvary Cookbooks The WMF is clearing out all remaining copies of the Calvary Cookbook from the late '90s. These recipes are still delicious! If you or someone you know would like a copy, please take one from the table in the lobby.

Family Life Missionaries David & Martha Haugen Visit Long-time Calvary members David and Martha Haugen will be at Calvary on Sunday, August 20th. They will give an update on their lives and their ministry with Family Life during the worship service. They will also be available to visit during Coffee Connection that morning.
