Hymn #533 AT CALVARY!

Scripture Reading John 19:1-6, p. 1151

---

1. What are some things that we should remember as we consider Jesus, seeing how he was abused in John 19:1-3?

2. What was Pilate's verdict regarding Jesus' case (19:4, 6)?

3. The statement Pilate makes as he presents Jesus to the crowd (John 19:5) is a statement that fits well with our Lenten Theme, "Consider Jesus". What comes to your mind as we are called to "Behold" Jesus in this setting?

4. What are the different ways the question could be answered, "Who killed Jesus?"

5. What should have happened if Pilate had truly considered Jesus during this trial?

6. Read John 19:7-11, p. 1152. In verses 7-8 there is a shift in the charges against Jesus. How should this have affected Pilate? How should it affect us as we consider Jesus?

7. What message comes through to you as you look at the dialogue between Pilate and Jesus in John 19:9-11 as you consider Jesus and ways this can be applied to our lives?
