Questions about the Introduction to the 10 Commandments:

8. The Law is all of God's rules in the Bible, including the 10 commandments. Do you think that you (or anyone else) can keep all of God's rules perfectly? Why or Why not?
9. What do we call it when we break one of God's rules (the law)? There is more than one acceptable answer, but the most common answer starts with a "S".

Questions from the Bible: Read Deuteronomy 5:1-33.

10. Sign your name in the space provided if you read this passage.

11. This is the 2nd time the 10 commandments appear in the Bible. Who was the man who presented God's law (The 10 Commandments and more) to the people of Israel?
12. Who is speaking these commandments? (v6, 22)

13. What did God write the 10 commandments on when he gave them to Moses?
14. Write down the number of the verse in which the people promise to listen and obey God's commands. ("we will hear and do it") verse _____
15. Do you think God's people always listened and obeyed these commandments? How do you know?

Ask your parents:

Ask your parents these two questions: What is the Law? What is the Gospel? Then write down their answer. If they need help, read Q 10-12 in your Catechism.
